

King for a Day
Reformer Gone Rogue
Scripture reading: 2 Kings 10:28-31

- I. Jehu started his kingship with a prophetic anointing to execute judgment on the house of Ahab and Jezebel.

- II. Jehu quickly becomes a radical crusader with very little moral conviction or discernment.

- III. Jehu falls to the same sins he is trying to eliminate.

- IV. Lessons from the life of Jehu:
 - a. The elimination of sin and personal holiness is a God-pleasing effort.

 - b. Loving God and people must be seen as a vital part of holy living.

 - c. We must work on our own sin issues in a loving, grace-filled atmosphere and invite others to join us as we grow together.

June 25 & 26, 2011
Fred Herron preaching