

Jonah: A Jilted Lover
God's Relentless Pursuit

Scripture reading: Jonah 1:4-16

- I. Running from God is forfeiting God's best for us

- II. When we run from God, God intervenes with wake-up calls
 - a. His wake up calls are interventions not punishment
 - b. His wake up calls come to save us from self-destruction
 - c. God's wake up calls can come from the strangest of places

- III. We may run from God, but we can never outrun God
